Day #2 – April 29, 2018

After breakfast, we continue our travels into the Bluegrass State, Kentucky. Our first visit today will be at a private horse farm in the heart of the Kentucky hill country, then it is off to Berea, KY for brunch at the Boone Tavern. Owned by Berea College, the tavern is named after the early Kentucky explorer, Daniel Boone. Late afternoon, we move into the foothills of the Smoky Mountains, Pigeon Forge, and our home for the next two nights. After check in and time to relax, visit the Hatfield & McCoy's to partake of a home-style dinner feast followed by a musical revue with dancing and comedy. (B, L, DS)

Day #3 – April 30, 2018

Today, we venture out to the Smokies Entertainment Capital, Dollywood! Known for its down-home country charm, this theme park is as unique as it's namesake and owner, Dolly Parton. Your visit would not be complete without taking time to enjoy the many shops and restaurants in the rustic settings as well as the arts and crafts area. We depart late afternoon for an evening of family entertainment, first at Dolly Parton's new Smoky Mountain Adventure Dinner Show and followed by the Country Tonite Show. (B, DS)

Day #4 – May 1, 2018

Our entertainment adventure changes venues today as we leave the Smokies behind and pass into South Carolina. Traveling from the highlands of the northwest to the lowlands of the fabulous Grand Strand, Myrtle Beach, late afternoon finds us checking into our beachfront property with oceanfront rooms. This is your sun, surf and entertainment headquarters for the next three nights. Tonight's entertainment is the Pirate Voyage Dinner Show. (B, DS)

The morning and afternoon are free for shopping at Barefoot Landing and enjoying the beach. Tonight, we will experience dinner at one of the local seafood restaurants followed by the Carolina Opry Evening show. (B, D)
