Day #1 – May 14, 2018

Get acquainted with your traveling companions as we travel to our first overnight in Springfield, Ohio. This travel day will include stops for breaks and meals before checking into the Marriott Downtown Hotel. Dinner is included this evening at the hotel. (D)

Day #2 – May 15, 2018

After an included breakfast, we check out and depart for Wheeling, West Virginia, arriving in the late morning. Lunch is included upon our arrival at the Wilson Lodge, our home for the next two nights. The Lodge is located on the former Oglebay Estate, which Mr. Oglebay, a successful Cleveland industrialist, willed to the people of Wheeling as a public park, now known as the Oglebay Resort. Following lunch, we will take a guided riding tour of Wheeling, a city with a rich and varied history. After our tour, return to Oglebay Park and visit the Carriage House Glass Museum and shop, featuring blown glass demonstrations and glassware dating back to the early 1800's. We then check into the Wilson Lodge which includes a welcome reception. Dinner is included here this evening. (B, D)

Day #3 – May 16, 2018

Following breakfast, we depart for Steubenville, Ohio along the Ohio River. Our first experience is a tour of Old Fort Steuben, for which the city is named, followed by a riding tour of the famous murals that decorate the city's buildings. Lunch is included at a local eatery. Later, we visit two historic churches known for their amazing stained glass windows. Departing Steubenville in the mid afternoon, we return to Oglebay Park for a tour of the 1846 Mansion Museum, former home of Earl Oglebay. We have time to visit the Bissonette Gardens, recreated from the 1900's, with beautiful views from the hilltop. Dinner is included once again at Wilson Lodge. (B, L, D)

Day #4 – May 17, 2018

Breakfast starts our day before we check out and depart Wilson Lodge and Oglebay Park. We will take a short break in Columbus, Ohio and then make a visit to the National Museum of the Air Force in Dayton, Ohio, the world's largest and oldest military aviation museum, located at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base. Displaying more than 360 aerospace vehicles and missiles, this museum includes historical items and exhibits from the Wright Brothers to today's Stealth technology. Lunch here is on your own. We will check into the Drury Inn in Indianapolis, and then depart for the Beef & Boards Dinner Theater for a dinner and showing of "Singin' in the Rain."
