Day #1 - October 9, 2018

Your first experience of “Aloha” begins with your arrival, where you will be met at your arriving gate with Traditional Flower Lei. You will then be escorted to baggage claim, where porters will take care of getting your luggage from the carousel and your host will escort you to your waiting vehicle for transfer to your Hotel. You will be greeted with a welcome gift of Aloha at your hotel by your Local Escort. Bellmen will deliver your luggage and you will be escorted to your hospitality desk for check-in. The island of Oahu is called the Gathering Place – this evening is on your own to relax.

Day #2 - October 10, 2018

Today you'll learn one of the Worlds' most valuable history lessons: how men and women gave their lives on December 7, 1941 - "The Day of Infamy". Today's experience will make you thankful for the freedoms we enjoy today. Now that you have seen the reason for the United States' entry into World War II, let's go see where it ended. You'll enjoy a Deli Style Lunch with a World War II Historian and then a docent guided walking highlights tour of this enormous battleship ending on the surrender deck where General MacArthur signed the treaty to end the war in Tokyo Bay. Lunch Included. Seeing as Hawaii is a cultural melting pot, tonight you're going to learn how to dine Japanese style. You will sit in tables of 10 as your Teppanyaki Chef prepares Japanese Steakhouse beef, shrimp and chicken right before your very eyes and can cheer him on as flames fly to the ceiling. (L, D)

Day #3 - October 11, 2018

Today, we enjoy a narrated tour of the city as we wind our way through The National Cemetery of the Pacific (Punchbowl), Washington Place which is the Governor's Mansion, The State Capitol Building, Chinatown, and the King Kamehameha Statue. The Iolani Palace is the only Royal Palace on American soil and was the official residence of Hawaii's Monarchy. It has been restored to its original opulence, and you will enjoy a docent guided tour gaining knowledge of the kings and queens of Paradise. Continuing your tour to the Eastern Shores reveals pristine sites that make people fall in love with Hawaii. Lush tropical rain forests, rocky cliffs and incredible views of the blue Pacific Ocean surround you as you travel through Oahu's eastern shoreline. Duke Kahanamoku was known as Hawaii's Ambassador of Aloha and the legend lives on at Dukes Waikiki. This evening, you will dine on Polynesian Fare in an open air beachfront setting as the sun drops off into the blue Pacific. (D)

Day #4 - October 12, 2018

Seeing as you have been in Hawaii for a few days now, here's your opportunity to "Hang Loose Hawaiian Style." Optional Activities like a Fly Away Tour to Kauai or a visit to the Polynesian Cultural Center will be available for purchase or you can sit back, relax and enjoy your day in Paradise. Optional Tour Prices and Descriptions Available Upon Request

Day #5 - October 13, 2018

This morning you will meet your escort who will have arranged for hotel bellmen to pick up your luggage for transfer to the airport. At the airport, porters will assist you with your luggage to check in for a short flight to Maui. Arriving on Maui, you will be escorted to baggage claim where porters will take care of getting your luggage from the carousel and your escort will direct you to your waiting vehicle. From the airport, descend into Iao Valley where the bright green Iao Needle shoots up from the ground and tropical plants, waterfalls, and swimming holes accentuate this tropical rain forest. The final stop of the tour is Lahaina Town, an old whaling seaport lined with restaurants, shops and over 40 art galleries. Tonight, you will enjoy a three course dinner of Hawaii's Regional Cuisine as the sun drops off into the blue Pacific. (D)

Day #6 - October 14, 2018

The goal on this snorkel cruise is to find the optimum conditions for an underwater adventure. While motoring to the snorkel site you will encounter an abundance of marine life: Green Sea Turtles, Spinner Dolphins, Pilot Whales and possibly, during the season, a Pacific Humpback Whale. Upon arriving at the snorkel destination, guests may enter the water at their own pace, or stay on board for a lesson in snorkeling. All equipment and flotation devices are provided. After snorkeling the bar is opened and lunch is served. This is a "don't miss" excursion for beginners or seasoned snorkelers. Maui is known for its delectably fresh farm to table cuisine and with all the great restaurants, it's hard to choose just one but this one has its own sustainable farm which is where the freshness comes from. You will enjoy a three course dinner prepared by chef Anton Haines as the sun sets into the blue Pacific at this oceanfront restaurant. (D)

Day #7 - October 15, 2018

Up you go from the sugar cane plain, through Paniolo (Hawaiian cowboy) country, up beyond the protea farms of Kula, up country Maui, then above the tree line to where cacti and rare Hawaiian silver swords grow to the very crest of Haleakala 10,000 feet above sea level. This volcano is Maui's House of the Sun, her moonlike crater the size of Manhattan and her outlooks of the islands are a spectacular view like no other on earth. Lunch Included. Are you ready to do the Hula? Let's all join in and say "ALOHA" with a traditional Hawaiian party where you'll be doing the hula, enjoying traditional Hawaiian foods, music, entertainment and gracious island hospitality. (L, D)

Day #8 - October 16, 2018

Today is another opportunity to "Hang Loose Hawaiian Style." Optional Activities like a Heavenly Hana Tour or Whale Watching will be available for purchase or you can sit back, relax and enjoy your last full day in Paradise. Optional Tour Prices and Descriptions Available Upon Request

Day #9 - October 17, 2018

Today is departure day. We bid you Aloha and a Big Mahalo for visiting the islands, hope you have a safe journey home and take some of the Mana (Hawaiian Spirit) with you. We depart late afternoon on our overnight flight to Chicago.

Day #10 - October 18, 2018

Upon our early morning arrival at Chicago O'Hare Airport a Tri-State Travel Motorcoach awaits to return us to our departure location.
