Day 5 Oklahoma City, Oklahoma Friday December 3, 2021

This morning we enjoy breakfast at the nationally televised Magnolia Table. Following breakfast we travel to Oklahoma City and visit the Oklahoma National Memorial. The Memorial is comprised of two separate components; the 3.3-acre Outdoor Symbolic Memorial includes the Gates of Time, which mark the time before and after the bombing took place, and the Field of Empty Chairs, which memorializes each of those killed. Inside the 50,000-square-foot Memorial Museum, interactive exhibits offer a chronological, self-guided experience through the story of April 19, 1995, and the days, weeks and years that followed. Next we check into our hotel, located in the historic “Brick Town” district of Oklahoma City. Brick Town is a lively entertainment district, with repurposed warehouse spaces that are home to restaurants, piano lounges, and chic wine bars. The eclectic mix of shops offers clothing, home decor and specialty food items like gourmet condiments and handmade chocolates. We enjoy a narrated “Cruise on the River Walk” (weather permitting) with beautiful Holiday Lights Displays along the river banks. The balance of the evening is free to explore the lively entertainment and dine at one of the multitude of bistros and restaurants in Brick Town.
