Experience the massive 2,000-foot high formations and towers in the park, Zion Canyon with its lush green canyons and the Virgin River flowing against a backdrop of huge red rock cliffs. It is no wonder the local Paiute Indians believed it was a place that the spirits dwelt and would not enter after dark. Later in the afternoon, we travel along the Mt. Day 3 Wednesday, September 21, 2022 – Bryce Canyon – Dead Horse Point - Moab

This morning enter Bryce Canyon National Park for sightseeing. The vibrant colors and unearthly shapes of Bryce Canyon spark the imagination of both young and old. The Paiute Indians described the canyon as “red rocks standing like men in a bowl-shaped canyon.” Pioneer and settler Ebenezer Bryce, for whom the canyon was named, described it as “a hell of a place to lose a cow.” Next enjoy a drive on one of America’s most spectacular roads, Scenic Highway 12, designated as an “All American Road,” the crown jewel of the Scenic Byways system. Travel through Grand Staircase – Escalante National Monument, with vast expanses of cream and rose colored Navajo sandstone. There are dramatic cliffs, high mesas, beautiful streams and deep canyons in multi-hued colors across this 1.9 million acre monument. Drive up and over Boulder Mountain reaching altitudes over 9,000 feet with incredible views of Capitol Reef, the Circle Cliffs and the Henry Mountains. We arrive at Capitol Reef National Park for a picnic lunch under old growth cottonwood trees. This park features petroglyphs, beautiful rock formations, deep canyons and pioneer history. In the afternoon, travel through the San Rafael Swell and the town of Green River and on your way to Dead Horse Point State Park for one of the most spectacular scenes in the southwest. You will see the expanse of Canyonlands National Park stretching to the south and the mighty Colorado River 2,000 feet below. Then arrive in Moab and check in for overnight. The evening is free to explore and have dinner on your own.

In the afternoon, board the famed Rocky Mountaineer in Silver Leaf Class and begin the journey eastward. Enjoy award winning service and informative narrations by our rail conductor as our scenic rail adventure begins! We depart Moab and travel through Colorado Canyons National Conservation Area.
